

Positioning

A curated directory of income options, education and training resources, supportive services, and official state and federal information for doing business in the U.S.

Overview

Income Spectrum is a directory and database for aspiring and established self-employed people and small business operators. The site organizes independent income options, practical learning resources, supportive business services, and official state and federal information in one place.

Audience

- Aspiring self-employed people
- Freelancers and independent contractors
- Established small business operators
- People researching tools, training, services, and official business requirements

Directory Sections

- Opportunities
- Education & Training
- Supportive Services
- Official Resources

Advertising and Sponsorship Options

- Featured listings in category pages
- Sponsored listings with clear labeling
- Homepage featured placement
- Category sponsorships
- State and federal resource page sponsorships

Suggested Listing Tiers

Free Listing

- Standard directory inclusion

Featured Listing

- Priority placement within a category
- Highlighted visual treatment

Sponsored Listing

- Premium placement
- Sponsored label
- Enhanced description and visibility

Why Partner With Income Spectrum

- Relevant audience intent
- Directory-based discovery
- Coverage across income, training, support, and official information
- Clean, trust-oriented presentation

Tracking and Reporting

- GA4 listing click tracking by listing and page type
- Visibility into sponsored and affiliate click activity

Contact

contact@incomespectrum.com
<https://incomespectrum.com>